Sir Knights:

We have arrived at the halfway point in our Templar year – a time to reflect on the past and apply it to the future. One outcome of this reflection is the fact that it has been found necessary to apply a small fee to our dinners. This was done reluctantly and for purely fiscal reasons. Inflation has hit us all, including Boston Commandery, and we found this fee necessary to help defray the normal, ever increasing everyday expenses of the Commandery. It is my sincere hope that this small cost will not dissuade you from attending our Conclaves. I will be glad to answer any questions about this, and other operating aspects of Boston Commandery as best I can.

Speaking of attendance, I wish to thank all those who support our Commandery by their presence at our Conclaves. Performing the work to a “full house” is a special treat for your Officers. We look forward to seeing your many friendly faces each month.

Two events of interest are coming up this May. The first, listed above is Templar Night at the Pops. This is a fun time and Boston Commandery is always well represented. I urge you to contact the Recorder with your request for tickets as soon as possible. The second is the Ladies Night at Pier 4 on Friday, May 21. Set this date aside and make a date with your lady for an evening of fine food, refreshment and dancing. More details will be in next month's Notice.

We have a special election coming up this month for a Trustee of the Permanent Fund. This is an important group, Sir Knights, as they decide on investments and the basic fiscal policy of our Commandery and an election to that group should be decided by as many Sir Knights of this Commandery as possible. This election is necessitated by the resignation due to ill health of our faithful Sentinel for many years, Eminent Sir James S.W. Rogers. To Jim, our heartfelt thanks for many years of loyal support as an Officer and as a Trustee. A second election will be held that evening to elect Eminent Sir Jim as an Honorary Trustee. Again, I urge your attendance to vote in this important election and to honor an outstanding past Commander of Boston Commandery.

See you on the 18th.

Yours in the faith,

William J. Cochran
Commander

H.A. Budreau, Chairman

Sir Knights:

Last month's Conclave was a very enjoyable one for all who attended. We had the pleasure of receiving our Right Eminent Grand Commander, Sir Knight Clifton J. Toothacher, Jr. who assisted your Commander in honoring our 40 and 50 year veterans. These Sir Knights were presented what is probably the most coveted award available in Masonry — the Veterans Medal. Our fraternity must have a magical effect on its members because some of those receiving their long service medal certainly did not look old enough to be eligible. Among those we honored that evening was Eminent Sir James S.W. Rogers, whom we elected an honorary Trustee in February. He had not been in the best of health and it was a pleasant surprise to see him in the Asylum. Also receiving his Veterans Medal was Sir Knight Harvey B. Leggee, who presented a photograph of Boston Commandery's officers and members at our outing in 1898. One of the Sir Knights in that picture, it was noticed, bears a striking resemblance to the presiding Commander of Boston Commandery. (I can assure you, however, that it is not! The photograph was taken a few years before I became a member of Boston Commandery.) Congratulations to our Veterans and thanks to Right Eminent David L. Esancy (and W.C. Fields) for the nostalgic entertainment.

May holds several high points in Boston Commandery activity. First, at our regular conclave on the 19th we will confer the Order of the Temple. This is always an inspiring event. Second, just two nights later, on Friday, the 21st, we will hold our Ladies Night at Anthony's Pier 4 Restaurant. Third, on Tuesday, the 25th is the annual Commandery Night at the Pops. Reservations can be made with our Recorder, Eminent Robert G. Wilson, III. These are three exciting events and I urge you to join us for them.

Yours in the Faith,

William J. Cochran

TEMPLAR MASONRY

Chivalric Freemasonry conforms to a pattern of ethical conduct exemplified by those associations of soldier-friars who defended the Holy City of Jerusalem, which contained the edifice which is symbolically constructed and restored in Symbolic, Capitular & Cryptic Freemasonry. Chivalric Freemasonry consists at present of four Orders: The Order of the Red Cross, the Order of the Mediterranean Pass, the Order of Malta, and the Order of the Temple. The allegorical illustrations used in Chivalric Freemasonry, with the exception of those taught in the Order of the Red Cross, are based on the rules, duties, and achievements of the two great religious and military Orders of the Temple and of St. John, known respectively as the Knights Templar and the Knights Hospitaller.

Various interpretations based on historic evidence have been advanced to show that Chivalric Freemasonry is the lineal descendant of the religious and military Orders of the Knights Templar and Knights Hospitaller. While there may be a reasonable basis for doubting this theory, it cannot be denied that Chivalric Freemasonry has preserved the traditions of the two great Orders in the allegorical lessons used to teach the lessons of Chivalric Freemasonry. Although many writers have advanced partial proof of this continued existence after the suppression of the Templars in 1314, none has been able to trace the intervening and connecting events with historical accuracy.

REPORT OF EYE FOUNDATION COMMITTEE

The final results of the 1976 campaign will be carried in the September notice. In the meantime, Sir Knights, your committee requests that those Sir Knights who have not contributed give further consideration to becoming a life member of the Eye Foundation, either by contributing $30.00 as a Life Sponsor; $50.00 as an Associate Patron or $100.00 as a patron. In either of these categories you will be relieved of the payment of any further Eye Foundation assessment, which is presently $1.00 a year; and, of the probability of any future increased assessment. It is well also to remember that when you become a life member of the Eye Foundation in any category, your contribution goes into an endowment fund, and your contribution becomes a gift in perpetuity.

RT. EM. SIR NELSON W. ALDRICH

The Masonic Fraternity, and Grand Commandery in particular, has been fortunate in its ability to attract men of outstanding ability to its ranks and to positions of leadership. Such a man was Rt. Eminent Sir Nelson Wilmarth Aldrich of Rhode Island who became Grand Commander of Massachusetts and Rhode Island in 1879 at the age of 38.

Aldrich was born in Foster, R.I. on November 6, 1841. His family moved to Killingly, Conn., and his early education was in the schools of that town. Subsequently he attended the academy at East Greenwich, R.I., for a time, leaving there at the age of sixteen to accept a position as book-keeper in Providence. In 1865 he was admitted a partner in his firm, Waldron, Wightman & Company, and this partnership continued for more than thirty years. He was elected a director of the Roger Williams Bank of Providence in 1872, and became President of the First National Bank of Providence in 1877. He was President of the Providence Board of Trade in 1878.

From his early manhood he took an active interest in public affairs; was a member of the Common Council of Providence from the fifth ward, 1869 to 1871; sixth ward, June, 1872 to January, 1875. President of that body from 1871 to 1873. He was elected to the General Assembly of Rhode Island in 1875, and re-elected the following year. During his second term of service he was chosen Speaker of the House.

In 1878 he was elected a Representative to the Forty-sixth Congress. In 1880 he was re-elected by the largest vote ever cast for a Representative in his district.

In 1881 he was elected to the Senate of the United States, and held that position for several terms, being recognized as one of the most prominent and able members of that body.

Aldrich was Knighted in Calvary Commandery No. 13, East Providence, in 1867, and was installed as its Eminent Commander in 1870. He was elected Grand Commander of Massachusetts and Rhode Island in 1879.

The name of this prominent Citizen, Statesman, and Templar, which had dimmed with the passage of time, might have faded altogether from our memories were it not for his grandson.

Nelson Aldrich Rockefeller, when being sworn in as Vice President of the United States, credited his maternal grandfather's life as being the example which first led him to public service.

GRAND COMMANDERY SESSION

The annual conclave of the Grand Commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island will be held on the weekend of September 24 and 25 at Falmouth, Mass. Accommodations will be at the Sheraton-Falmouth Hotel. Room reservations, banquet tickets, etc., may be obtained through the Grand Commandery office, 426-1973. Past Commanders are urged to attend and all Sir Knights are invited. Special arrangements are made for the ladies.

DO YOU WISH?

Do you wish the world were better?
Let me tell you what to do.
Set a watch upon your actions.
Keep them always straight and true.

Rid your mind of selfish motives.
Let your thoughts be clean and high.
You can make a little Eden
Of the sphere you occupy.

REHEARSAL FOR INSTALLATION — Dinner following Rehearsal

The Inspection of Boston Commandery will be held at our regular meeting on November 17, 1976.
Kindly save this date so that you will attend and help Boston Commandery with their count.

Officers/Divisions Rehearsal Schedule — Oct. 18, 20, Regular Rehearsal and October meeting, Long Form Opening — Regular Rehearsal 10/27, 11/8, 11/10, 11/15 Dress Rehearsal and such other dates as needed.

Sir Knights:

As the summer season is rapidly drawing to a close, it is time again for your Commandery to resume its regular monthly meetings. At this meeting we will be starting in with the installation of your newly elected officers. I would like for each member, his lady and friends to consider this my personal invitation to share with us this important event. We will be most fortunate to have a distinguished suite of installing officers, all members of Boston Commandery.

I wish to thank the members of Boston Commandery for the many honors you have bestowed upon me as an Officer of this fine

Commandery and now having elected me to serve as your Commander. I know I will have the support of a fine line of Officers and Past Commanders and I call upon you, the members of Boston Commandery to make this an outstanding year for all of us.

This year will be our 175th anniversary. Let's all make it a memorable one by attending as many of the conclaves and other functions planned for this, our anniversary year.

Yours in the Faith,
Harold G. Larson
Commander-Elect

At the March 17 meeting of Boston Commandery, Sir Knight Harvey B. Leggee presented our Eminent Commander, Sir Knight William J. Cochran, with a nostalgic picture from his collection of Masonic memorabilia. The picture, which will decorate our Armory, records 150 Sir Knights of Boston Commandery visiting Mt. Vernon, the home of our first President, Bro. George Washington. Sir Knight Leggee noted that just before the turn of the century, when this picture was taken, a number of the Sir Knights wore beards similar to that of our Eminent Commander. In fact, one Sir Knight in the picture bore a striking resemblance to Sir Knight Cochran.

GENERAL SAMUEL CROCKER LAWRENCE

Samuel Crocker Lawrence was born in Medford on November 22, 1832, the son of Daniel and Elizabeth Crocker Lawrence. He attended the Medford schools and Lawrence Academy in Groton, and graduated from Harvard College in the Class of 1855. Soon after graduation he was commissioned 3rd Lieutenant in Company E of the 5th Massachusetts Infantry. He quickly advanced to Colonel of the regiment to which his Company was attached.

Believing that war between the North and South was inevitable, Colonel Lawrence engaged an officer of the French army to instruct his regiment in tactics and drill. Thus, when Fort Sumpter was fired upon on April 12, 1861, he was prepared with a command fully trained and ready to take the field. The record of his regiment is historic. In the first battle of Bull Run it held its ground and continued battle a full three hours after General Heintzleman has declared that all was lost. During the battle, Colonel Lawrence was wounded and left for dead. Fortunately, he was later found by his adjutant, revived, and carried to the Union lines. Suffering from wounds, he returned with his command to Boston where he was enthusiastically welcomed home.

Despite his injuries and poor health, he again reported for active duty, but as the national capital was no longer in danger, his services were declined. During his stay in Washington he developed a warm friendship with President Lincoln which was a source of pride and comfort to him during his entire life. On July 9, 1862, he was commissioned a Brigadier General. After the war and during the remainder of his life, he continued his zealous interest in, and connection with, military affairs.

OUR PAST COMMANDERS

It is fitting that in this our 175th anniversary year, we review our history through brief biographical sketches of some of our distinguished Past Commanders. We are most fortunate to have been served by some of the brightest lights in Freemasonry. We are certain that the example of their lives will prove inspirational and give us an even greater appreciation for the history and traditions of Boston Commandery.

General Lawrence was always deeply interested in public affairs, but generally declined public office. However, when his native town of Medford became a city, he accepted the honor of being elected its first Mayor.

In his long and successful career in the business and financial world, General Lawrence's name was synonymous with honesty and upright dealing, and his achievements spelled success in every venture. As well as being sole proprietor of the family business, Daniel Lawrence & Sons, he was one of the committee to reorganize the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad, and was a director of several other railroads including the Boston and Maine. He also held responsible positions in banking and insurance.

Lawrence became interested in Freemasonry while still in college, and received his degrees in Hiram Lodge of Arlington in 1854. He later became a charter member of Mt. Hermon Lodge, and served as its Master from 1862 to 1865. He served Grand Lodge in various capacities and was elected Grand Master of Masons in 1881, 1882, and 1883.

General Samuel Crocker Lawrence was an active member of Boston Commandery and one of its ablest Commanders. He served as Eminent Commander from 1873 to 1875, establishing an enviable record of achievement. In 1894 he was elected Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

His long life of usefulness and successful endeavor ended on Sunday, September 24, 1911.

COMMANDER'S MESSAGE

Thanks to those who attended and took part in our most impressive installation; this commandery year is off to a good start.

This month would be a good time for you and all who were unable to attend to join with us, meet your new officers and see their work in preparation for our November 17 inspection. There are a lot of new faces; come now and get acquainted.

Yours in the Faith,

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS OFFERING AND GOOD CHEER

Templary is the New Testament of Masonry. As Christian Knights we have a duty to help the less fortunate. During the joyous Christmas season it has become the established custom in this, the greatest of all Christian Orders, for each Sir Knight to make a Holiday contribution to assure some measure of good cheer and good will for the lonely Knight, the destitute widow, the helpless orphan. Each Sir Knight financially able and willing to contribute $1, $5 or more, will surely experience that special Christmas joy that comes with the knowledge that he has helped provide some measure of Yuletide spirit and good cheer and has helped to spread the joy of Christmas outside his own home. This fund is annually expended, under the direction of the Eminent Commander, for the purpose of bringing some measure of happiness into the hearts and homes of the sick, the distressed, the needy and the deserving.

Please return your offering PROMPTLY in the enclosed envelope to HAROLD G. LARSON, Commander, 186 Tremont Street, Boston for direct distribution under the direction of the Commander. If you know of some worthy case please contact the Commander promptly.

WINSLOW LEWIS

Winslow Lewis was born in Boston on July 8, 1799, and pursued a preparatory course of study under the tutelage of Mr. Daniel Staniford before entering Harvard College where he graduated with honor in the class of 1819. He studied medicine and surgery under Dr. John C. Warren of Boston and, after being admitted to practice, continued his studies in London and Paris. He quickly rose to distinction in his profession and, upon the death of Dr. Warren, succeeded him as consulting surgeon in the Massachusetts General Hospital.

While engaging in a varied and extensive practice for thirty-five years, Dr. Lewis found time to educate hundreds of young men as surgeons and anatomists. He also found time to serve as an overseer of Harvard College, as a member of the Boston City Council, and as a Representative to the General Court of Massachusetts.

Dr. Lewis was raised a Master Mason in Columbian Lodge on February 3, 1831, became a member of St. John's Lodge in 1834, and was one of the charter members of Winslow Lewis Lodge which was formed in 1858 and named in his honor. He was an officer of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts nearly every year from 1834 until his death, and served as Grand Master of Masons in 1855, 1856, and 1860.

HENRY ENDICOTT

Henry Endicott was born in Canton, Massachusetts on November 14, 1824, a member of that branch of the Endicott family which originally settled in Wells, Maine, but had resided in Canton for more than a hundred and fifty years. One of his brothers, Charles Endicott, was State Treasurer of Massachusetts for the five years from 1876 to 1881 having previously been State Auditor from 1870 to 1876. Another brother, Augustus B. Endicott, was Sheriff of Norfolk County for thirteen years.

Henry Endicott was educated in the public schools of Canton and, soon after his marriage in 1851, established himself in Boston as a manufacturer of engines and boilers. In 1858 he moved his works to Cambridge and soon became a prominent factor in the business and financial life of that city. He was an officer of the Harvard Trust Company and the Cambridge Gas Light Company, and was President of the Cambridgeport Savings Bank. In all these and other financial associations he was known and respected for all his sterling integrity and business capacity.

In 1860 Endicott entered the Masonic fraternity in Amicable Lodge of Cambridge. He served that Lodge as Master from 1864 to 1866. In 1867 he served as Master of Mizpah Lodge, then under dispensation, and retained that office for two years after the Lodge received its Charter. He served two years as District Deputy Grand Master for the Fourth Masonic District and, in 1873, was elected Senior Grand Warden. He was elected Grand Master of Masons in Massachusetts in 1886, 1887, and 1888.

Endicott was Knighted in Boston Commandery in 1861 and served faithfully in several elected and appointed capacities before being elected Commander for two terms, from 1871 to 1873.

Eminent Sir Endicott suffered from rheumatism during the last years of his life, which prevented him from participation in our meetings. He was our Senior Past Commander when he died at his home in Cambridge on November 8, 1913.
